Lady Sue M. White

Lady Sue M. White was born in Chittoor, Andhra Pradesh, India, and immigrated to the United States as a young child. Although she was raised in a Christian home, it was during her years at Penn State that a college friend shared with her the Biblical plan of salvation as recorded in Acts 2:38. Responding to the call of God upon her life, she repented of her sins and was baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ on April 4, 1993. Later that year, on September 9, 1993, she received the precious gift of the Holy Ghost while praying in her college dorm room.

Since receiving the Holy Ghost in 1993, Lady White has continued to grow in her walk with the Lord, relying on His grace and guidance through life's various seasons while seeking to be a blessing to others through ministry, service, and Christian fellowship. Lady White earned a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology from The Pennsylvania State University in 1995 and a Master of Social Work from The University of Pennsylvania in 1999. She later expanded her professional training by earning a Bachelor of Science in Nursing, graduating Cum Laude from La Salle University in 2016.

Lady White holds active Pennsylvania licenses as both a Registered Nurse (RN) and Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW). Today, she works as a Social Worker, where she combines professional expertise with a passion for helping children and families navigate life's challenges.

Lady White believes wholeheartedly that God blesses His people with gifts, talents, and opportunities so they may glorify Him and be a blessing to others. Throughout the years, she has sought to honor the Lord through service, compassion, and a commitment to meeting the needs of those around her.

One of Lady White’s greatest joys is serving alongside her husband, Elder Chris J. White, as a devoted wife, prayer partner, and helpmeet. As First Lady of Greater Emmanuel Temple Church in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, she offers prayer, encouragement, and steadfast support as he fulfills his calling as Pastor. She also supports him in his role as Assistant Pastor of Blessed Hope Temple in Anderson, South Carolina, under the leadership of District Elder Jeremiah M. Williams.

In addition to supporting her husband in ministry, Lady White has faithfully served in various capacities within the church, including teaching Women's Sunday School classes, sharing her professional knowledge and personal faith through workshops and discussions focused on women's mental wellness, emotional well-being, and spiritual growth, and planning and coordinating special events and services. She also serves in the Women's Department at Blessed Hope Temple and as a Senior Missionary for the Greater Emmanuel Temple Church Missionary Auxiliary.

Whether through acts of service, words of encouragement, or faithful support of the ministry, Lady White seeks to reflect the love of Christ in both word and deed.
By the grace of God, Lady White has been joyfully married to Elder Chris J. White for twenty years and is the proud mother of their twin young adult children, Maya and Christopher. While she treasures the love of her husband and children, her greatest joy is knowing, serving, and living for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Her favorite scripture is Proverbs 3:5-6 (KJV): "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

To God be all the glory for the things He has done!
